

As a community-based medical school, our mission is to advance the health and well-being of our community by training future generations of humanistic clinicians and scientists and by translating discovery to patient-centered care.

Education

Harnessing innovation to drive educational excellence

Research

Advancing patient-centered research and discovery

Primary Care Clinic

Fostering value-based care in the community

