

ASUH

Associated Students of the University of Hawai'i

YOUR STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Serve. Lead. Empower.

Make a difference on the UH Mānoa campus today!

Founded in 1912, the Associated Students of the University of Hawai'i is the elected student government representing over 14,000 full-time undergraduates at the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa.

Currently in its 103rd year of service, ASUH works to enrich the student experience by providing scholarships, funding for student organizations, and advocating for the student interest.
