

A BUSINESS DEGREE THAT ACTUALLY PREPARES YOU FOR THE BUSINESS WORLD

The Fogelman College of Business & Economics at the University of Memphis is affordable and is accredited by the AACSB — the gold standard in business school achievement and an honor earned by less than 5% of business schools worldwide.

Students benefit from a research-active faculty who ensure the curriculum stays current with the latest trends. Fogelman College is composed of six departments including:

- Accounting
- Economics
- Business Information and Technology (formerly MIS)
- Management
- Finance, Insurance and Real Estate
- Marketing and Supply Chain Management

Fogelman College students also receive the exclusive opportunity to participate in the Complete Professional Program, which provides training on ethics, business etiquette, resume building, networking and more!

Become a part of the Fogelman College family and develop the skills necessary to achieve personal and professional success. To learn more visit memphis.edu/fcbe, email fcbeadvising@memphis.edu or call 901.678.2855.

