

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

The COE believes in excellence and diversity through people, ideas, and innovation. The College is committed to fulfill our promise to transform the lives of children, youth, and families in our State by providing our students with a rigorous, research-based, and relevant education.

UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMS

|                      |                        |                     |
|----------------------|------------------------|---------------------|
| Athletic Training    | Family & Child Studies | Physical Education  |
| Elementary Education | Health Education       | Secondary Education |
| Exercise Science     | Nutrition              | Special Education   |

GRADUATE PROGRAMS

|                         |                                                 |                                             |
|-------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|
| Counseling              | Family & Child Studies                          | Physical Education,Exercise Science     |
| Educational Leadership  | Health Education                                | Physical Education,Sport Administration |
| Educational Linguistics | Language, Literacy, &Sociocultural Studies  | Secondary Education                         |
| Educational Psychology  | Nutrition                                       | Special Education                           |
| Elementary Education    | Physical Education,Curriculum & Instruction | Teaching, Learning &Teacher Education   |

The programs above are simply a preview of what we offer. We encourage you to explore our website to view online availability for these programs and to further discover our many professional certificate opportunities, concentrations, and minor options.

35,000
alumni and counting

3.75
average GPA

More than $250,000
awarded in COE scholarships

Stay connected @unmcoe

Join the COE pack today!

COE.UNM.EDU
505.277.0562

